The committee met on Tuesday to review the annual budget.

Members agreed that the library needs a new roof before winter.

A short vote followed, and the motion passed with two objections.

The treasurer will publish the final figures next month.

Residents may send written comments to the town clerk.

The meeting adjourned at nine in the evening.